We, the undersigned, Members of the First Nations, Quebecers, Canadians, wish to bring to the attention of the House of Commons:

That the Native Women of Canada continue to be victims of discrimination based on sex, and this is in several domains.

- Convention Relating to the Rights of the Child.

TO THESE CAUSES, the Petitioners support the claims of the AMUN MARCH and request from the House of Commons, to correct the situation, in particular:

- By granting to these women and their children, the Right to the Indian Status (abolish categories).
- By granting to these women and their children, the Right of Membership to the Band.
- By registering the children whose paternity is in question or not recognized.
- By granting to these women, their spouses and their children, the Right to reside in the Reserve.
